Trujillo Project. Since Tammy Trujillo left KFWB, she's been working on some personal projects while waiting for her next news assignment. She is hosting 'The Pet Project' with Captain Aaron Reyes of SEAACA (South East Area Animal Control Authority).

"Aaron has been a long-time friend back from when I co-hosted the spcaLA telethons," emailed Tammy. "We have talked for many years about doing a radio show together focusing on animals and now we finally have! The show airs on Mt. San Antonio College's Internet Radio Station, audio8ball.com, and features three of my most talented students: Sam Eye I with 'Animal Adventures,' Jen with 'The Zoo Review' and Alan Bailey with 'The Pup Profile.'"

The show airs Thursday nights from 6 p.m. – 7 p.m. "We started last week, had a lot of fun and got a lot of texts and emails," Tammy continued. "Despite the fact that working with animals is one of my passions, this is also a great way for Mt. SAC's RTV students to learn how to do talk shows and feature pieces. If anyone has any animal questions or issues they would like us to talk about, please email them to me at: tammytrujillo@audio8ball.com. We also love to see pictures of your pets!"
